

Phil Bautista, President CEO

I have been a consultant to many businesses and organizations connecting them to clients in need of their products and services. This allows my clients to build successful and profitable business relationships and sometimes partnerships.

I have been a resident of the city Milwaukee, Wisconsin for most of my life. I have been active in Indian sovereignty and treaty rights in Northern Wisconsin, and across North America. I was instrumental in the development of the Potawatomi casino in Milwaukee and was vice president of the Milwaukee Indian Community School from 1984 to 1988. I was awarded the Indian Educator of the Year in 1986 by the Wisconsin Indian Education Association for the reopening of the Indian Community School after it had been dormant for many years. I also was a member of the Milwaukee Indian Education Committee.

For the past twenty five years, I have worked for several nonprofit and for profit organizations and corporations in Milwaukee. I have been involved in public and community relations, fundraising, supervising, project and business development, and sales. My passion to raise awareness and support for humanitarian causes, along with seasoned political acumen allows me to excel in corporate, civic, and tribal associations and to work with diverse ages and cultures. All of these affiliations I have chosen have given me many longstanding friendships and connections to people in all walks of life. Contacts I have made throughout the country enable me to bring people together for success in business.

Sincerely,
Phil Bautista
